NEW YORK, July 15.—There was no striking new development to account for the further advance in prices of stocks to-day. The buying was based upon the general improvement in the speculative situation. Commission nouses reported some moderate and scattering increase in orders from miscelinneous sources, but the transactions remained largely in professional bands and partook of the manipulative character usual in that class of operation. Probably some part of the uniterlying strength of railroad stocks is due to the conviction that a process of readjustment of freight rates is being worked out by the railroads of the fountry which will result in an increase of the revenues derived from their traffic. News of the filing notices with the Interstate Commerce Commission of new rates shows the movement to be widespread and the changes to represent increases as a rule. In spite of protest of shippers in varius organizations, it is evident that the increase of freight rates are going on undeniably favorable.

Abreak of 4 per cent, in Rock Island collateral trust 5s was a disturbing element in the later market, in which a considerable reaction occurred.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, July 15.—Opening steady at a decline of 4 points the cotton market early declined 50.9 points further, July excepted, which advanced 3 points on one of two small attempts to cover by belated shorts. The general temper of the market was firm and after the weak start referred to, prices worked, up on a moderate business to within a couple of points or so of the closing figures 'ôf' the previous day. The volume of business' at best was small. It was a waiting market. The bears waiting for the bulls to realize the significance of the great crop indications. The bulls were waiting for the bears to realize not only the possibility of a reverse to the crop, following a continually August-September habit, but the probability of an early improvement in the demand from spinners who are yet, like the speculative shorts, holding off in the ground that prices must decline under the weight of the early receipts from under the weight of the early receipts from under the weight of the early receipts from a record crop. Southern spot markets were unchanged. The alleged pressure of old spot cotton, of which there has been so much talk from the Southwest, is no longer mentioned as a factor. The market closed steady at a met decline of 107 points, with the exception of November, in which position there were no transaction, while the official quotations was given as 9 points under yesterday's closing. Sales estimated at 190,000 tales. Late in the afternoon houses operatively of the second o
